The UnStable is the campus pub, managed and operated by students. It is a place for seminarians, graduate theology students, co-workers, retreatants, and guests to relax and enjoy camaraderie. The UnStable may be reserved for a particular group, program, or activity as approved by the student manager of the UnStable.

The original UnStable was established in 1970 in the lower level of Marty Gym and was lined in rustic barn wood (hence the name). In 2013, it was relocated to the former bowling alley in St. Martin Center. You can view a portion of the alley flooring at the square table in the barroom.
